WINTER 2019

Mercury Rising

Winter's transition to spring can be chronicled in color. Snowy whites flow into golden ivories and caramels that give way to nature's family of greens and blues.

Luxury textiles add dimension to the seasonal narrative through quilting, cotton satens and percales, silk and washed linen, to name a few tactile interpretations.

Here is a sampling of new collections launching during the winter markets: Atlanta International Gift & Home, Jan. 8-15; Dallas Total Home & Gift Market, Jan. 16-22; Las Vegas Market, Jan. 27-31; and NY Now, Feb. 3-7.

▲ Bedroom Glitterati is part of coral & frank's Palm Springs bedding and accessories collection, inspired by the Hollywood glamor of the 1960s from its stars to its mid-century modern architecture.
