

furniture lighting & decor

looking forward

to color, to 2019

Modern Moroccan style defines the bohemian and authentic hand-knotted Batten area rug from Jaipur Living. This plush rug, part of the Zuri Collection, features a global-inspired lattice design in a unique, green-and-white colorway, accented with vibrant flecks of pink and yellow wool yarns for a bright pop of color. www.jaipurliving.com

SAGE ADVICE

A cooler shade of green, versatile Sage moved to floors at High Point Market this fall, lending itself to creative interpretations.

BY ALISON MARTIN

Hand-woven of 100 percent wool, the Kinley rug from Surya lays flat on the floor. Sage blends with Teal, Grass, Camel, Olive and Cream to create a collage of color. www.surya.com

Striking and sophisticated, the Ophelia Collection for Magnolia Home by Joanna Gaines reimagines historic patterns in a color palette for today. Power-loomed of viscose and polyester, the rug balances hues of Sage and gray. Crafted by Loloï. www.loloirugs.com

On-trend yet timeless, Feizy's Breeel Collection has a textural fashion sensibility in a luminous raw-silk shag construction. Each hand-knotted masterpiece marries a luxe sheen with soft hues for an abstract design that fits nearly any space. www.feizy.com

KAS Rugs' Ashton Collection reminisces on old-world beauty while incorporating a color palette for today's consumer. This machine-woven, traditional-style rug is cross-woven and space-dyed of polyester in Turkey. www.kasrugs.com