WHAT'S N

The Nandina design team weighs in on their favorite trends for Spring + Summer 2019.

SUE SHANNON, PRINCIPAL DESIGNER

Currey & Company // Kallista Chest

This stunning Kallista chest from Currey & Company perfectly displays a rich deeply saturated hue of blue. Its soft black exterior shell encasing drawers of deep blue with gold accents is definitely not your Mama's '80s dresser!

JOHN ISHMAEL, PRINCIPAL DESIGNER

Surya // Zeus

If you love color especially a color as vibrant as the 2019 Pantone color of the year "Living Coral," don't be afraid to use it in an area rug. This richly hued hand knotted wool rug from Surya could be the foundation of any room – and act as art right under your feet!

JESSIE LAFALCE, LEAD DESIGNER

This Finial Company

I'm loving the mix of clear acrylic or Lucite and matte gold! Be sure to invest in quality when choosing acrylic. Custom-made drapery panels are heavy and can cause cheaply made hardware to bend.

SUSAN VICTOR, PRINCIPAL DESIGNER

Currey & Company // Water Lily Chandelier

We are seeing large floral patterns in rugs, fabrics, wallpaper and even lighting design. The Water Lily Chandelier by Currey & Company is a fabulous example of floral done in a most unexpected way. Large flowering blossoms in gold leaf set in a frame of trailing branches make this chandelier a show-stopper in any room.
